

FRAMEWORK & 2030 VISION STATEMENT

FOR THE CLIMATE AND CLEAN AIR COALITION TO REDUCE SHORT-LIVED CLIMATE POLLUTANTS

The representatives of the Coalition's State Partners<sup>1</sup> and in consultation with the non-State Partners:

Recognizing that key short-lived climate pollutants (SLCPs), including methane, black carbon, tropospheric ozone, and many hydrofluorocarbons, are responsible for a substantial fraction of near-term climate change, with a particularly large impact in sensitive regions of the world;

Concerned that SLCPs have significant impact on air quality and detrimental health, agricultural, and environmental impacts;

Recognizing that control of SLCPs is expected to have near-term and multiple benefits for human well-being;

Acknowledging the ongoing efforts by states, organizations, and partnerships to address SLCPs and related public health issues;

Recognizing that these efforts will benefit from the active involvement of the private sector, environmental groups, civil society, and intergovernmental organizations;

Committed to control and to reduce SLCPs, including in their own countries;

Appreciating the unique capabilities of the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP);

Recognizing the central importance of reducing emissions of greenhouse gases, including through national action and multilateral cooperation under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, in order to address climate change effectively;

Set forth the following Framework for the Climate and Clean Air Coalition to Reduce Short-Lived Climate Pollutants ("the Framework").

1. Purpose

The Coalition is a voluntary international framework for concrete and substantial action to accelerate efforts to reduce SLCPs, with an initial focus on methane, black carbon, and many hydrofluorocarbons (HFCs), in ways that protect the environment and public health, promote food and energy security, and address near-term climate change and air pollution.

2030 VISION STATEMENT

We are at a critical point. There is a public health emergency from air pollution and a global climate crisis. In today's world, the Climate and Clean Air Coalition is more needed than ever.

Our vision is an atmosphere that enables people and the planet to thrive – a stabilized climate with warming limited to 1.5C and drastically reduced air pollution.

In the next decade we will work to put the world on a pathway that rapidly reduces warming in the near-term and maximizes development, health, environmental and food security benefits.

Building on our experiences we will both drive and respond to scientific and political progress, guided by the following imperatives:

- Working at the nexus of climate and air quality, delivering multiple benefits from the mitigation of short-lived climate pollutants: methane, HFCs, black carbon and tropospheric ozone.
- Strengthening our partnership to deliver results, working arm-in-arm with leaders of national governments, subnational governments, cities, intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, companies, and civil society.
- Providing decision-makers the confidence to deliver fast and immediate mitigation.

Together we will catalyse action to raise ambition.
